MUNICIPAL SANITARY WORKS LOAN.

UNDER authority from the Government of India, the MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER for the City of Bombay hereby notifies that, with the sanction of the Town Council, and for and on behalf of the Municipal Corporation, he is PREPARED TO RECEIVE TENDERS up to 2 p.m. on MONDAY, the 20th April, 1885, for a LOAN OF 10 LAKHS on the Security of the General Revenue of the Bombay Municipality, subject to any prior charge in respect of balances of previous Loans not yet fully paid off.

2. Debentures for Rupees 500 each (form of which will be published on or before the 6th April, 1885) will be issued, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum payable half-yearly.

3. The period of repayment of the Loan is 40 years, but it will be at the option of Tenderers to intimate at the time of tendering whether they desire the principal paid off by half-yearly instalments of such amounts as will liquidate the Loan at the expiration of that period. In the case of Tenders in which no intimation to the above effect is given, it will be assumed that it is desired that the interest only shall be paid half-yearly, in which case a sufficient sum will be set aside half-yearly, and invested in such manner as may be authorised by the law for the time being in force, to provide for the repayment of the whole of the principal at the expiration of the said period of 40 years.

4. Preference will be given to Tenderers for the whole Loan, who may be willing to accept annual payments of fixed amounts in reduction of the principal debt.

5. Subscriptions will be received and Scrip Receipts for instalments will be granted by the Bank of Bombay. Debentures will be issued in exchange for such Scrip Receipts as soon as possible after all the instalments have been paid.

6. Subject to the aforesaid limit of 10 Lakhs, Tenders may be for sums of Rs. 500, or multiples of Rs. 500.

7. Each Tender must be addressed in the form annexed to this Notification, and enclosed in a sealed cover superscribed, "Tender for Municipal Sanitary Works Loan." The Municipal Commissioner does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any Tender or Tenders.

8. The amount of any accepted Tender or Tenders must be paid in the following instalments :—

One-third on or before 1st May 1885.
One-third more on or before 1st June, 1885.
And the remainder on or before 1st July 1885.

9. Interest from 1st May, 1885, to 1st July, 1885, will be paid in advance upon the amount of the first instalment, and from 1st June, 1885, to 1st July, 1885, upon the amount of the second instalment. From 1st July, 1885, interest will be payable half-yearly on 1st January and 1st July in each year.

10. Tenderers must pay into the Bank of Bombay to the credit of the Municipal Corporation a sum equal to ten per cent. of the amount tendered. Bank receipt for such deposit must accompany each Tender.

11. If the Tender be accepted, the deposit will be taken in part of the last instalment, but it will be forfeited if after the acceptance of the Tender the allotment is not fully taken up. A cash deposit may, after the Tender in support of which it is made is accepted, be replaced by Government Paper of equal value at the then market rate.

12. The deposit on Tenders which may not be accepted will be returned on application.

13. In the case of equality of approved Tenders above the amount required, a proportionate allotment will be made.

14. The rate stated in a Tender must not contain any fraction of an anna. If a rate containing any fraction of an anna is inserted in any Tender such fraction will be struck out and the Tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

15. In order to avoid mistakes, a separate Tender must be made at each rate tendered, and a separate deposit must be made in respect of each tender.

F. C. K. OLLIVANT,
Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay.
Municipal Commissioner's Office, Bombay, March 31, 1885.

I hereby tender for Rupees of the Municipal Sanitary Works Loan of 10 Lakhs, advertised in the Municipal Commissioner's Notification, dated the 31st March, 1885, published in the local newspapers, and I agree to pay for the same, subject to the conditions notified, at the rate of Rupees and annas for one hundred rupees allotted to me.

I enclose a Deposit Receipt of the Bank of Bombay for Rupees and I engage, if my offer is accepted, to pay to the account of the Municipal Corporation at the Bank of Bombay the first instalment on or before the 1st day of May, 1885, the second instalment on or before the 1st day of June, 1885, and the third instalment on or before the 1st day of July, 1885.

N. B.—Tenderers should state if they desire the principal paid off by half-yearly instalment before the expiration of 40 years.

GENUINE WHISKY

THE following complete analysis of our celebrated GLENLIVET SCOTCH WHISKY has been just received ; it emphatically confirms and places beyond a doubt all that has been said respecting the genuineness, purity, and quality of our well-known brand ; the fact of our Whisky being free from Sherry, etc., should be specially noted, as at the present time this adulteration is extremely prevalent.

From DR. WALLACE,
Public Analyst to the City of Glasgow.
City Analyst's Laboratory, Glasgow, February 1885.

I have made a careful chemical analysis and examination of a sample of Glenlivet Scotch Whisky, received on the 30th ult., from Messrs. Treacher and Co., Bombay, and have found it to be a pure Scotch Whisky, of excellent flavour, sufficiently matured, and perfectly free from Sherry Wine and other additions, which are frequently made to Whisky, in order to give it a fictitious appearance of age or to conceal inferiority of quality.

THE GREAT WESTERN HOTEL,

FORT, BOMBAY.

I LIVED at the Great Western Hotel with my family for six weeks, and we were very comfortable. The rooms are clean, the food is good, and the Proprietor and his Manager are most civil and obliging.

I have stayed at the Great Western Hotel for six days, and have found it by far the most comfortable Hotel I have ever stayed in in Bombay. The rooms are very clean, and a very good Table is kept up. I have much pleasure in giving this testimony in favour of an Establishment which I consider well deserving of support.

R. H. QUILL, M. D., Surgeon A. M. D.

Mrs. Phillips, child, and self stayed at the Great Western Hotel for two days ; were very well satisfied. Found the Manager and every one connected with the Hotel very obliging.

H. L. W. PHILLIPS, Major, Suffolk Regiment.

Having had a great experience of Bombay Hotels for nearly 30 years I have much pleasure in saying that this is by far the best I have ever stayed at.

M. YONGE, Lieut.-Colonel, Retired List.

I fully endorse the above testimonial by Colonel Hughes. The Hotel is by far the best that I have ever stayed at in Bombay, and the attendance is particularly good.

H. M. DANE, B.C.S.

I stopped with my wife at the Great Western Hotel, and found everything very comfortable. The Manager was most obliging.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 1.

THE view of the political situation entertained on the London Stock Exchange is evidently tending more and more in favour of peace, Consols yesterday having advanced ½ to 97⅞, and Rupee Paper ⅜ in Fours, ¼ in Fours-and-a-half. French Rentes in Paris also are 1 per cent. better at 108½, the resolution to prosecute the war with China with increased energy having apparently found favour with the country.

The London Produce markets by their dulness evidence a like estimate of the probable course of political affairs with that shown by operators in the funds. Both Linseed and Rapeseed are reported flat with a decline of 3d. to 6d. per quarter, while Wheat is dull and in London to arrive 6d. to 9d. per quarter lower. Coffee is unchanged. Cochin cocoanut oil is 10s. per ton higher.

Cotton in Liverpool yesterday did not meet a large demand, the sales being only estimated at 6,000 bales; but the tone nevertheless was firm, and in spot prices an advance of 1-16d. was established in Mid-Uplands, Good Fair Omra, Good Broach, and Good Fair Dhollera; while Americans to arrive were generally 1-32d. higher. In New York, too, futures were 5 points better yesterday, and all round the indications are that prices are ripe for a recovery the moment a peaceful settlement of the Russian dispute is assured. Trade no doubt is the reverse of active, but we doubt whether it is quite so bad everywhere as to some buyers of cotton would like to make it out. The following results of last year's working with some of the Continental companies are certainly not indicative of what we on this side should call unprofitable business. No doubt there are many mills doing worse, but favoured as Bombay spinners are by their position there are not many of them able to show the average of the companies we have extracted at random:—

	Dividend for the year 1884.
The Stuttgardt Cotton Co.	10 per cent.
The Hof (Prussia) Power Loom Weaving Co.	11½ ,,
The Erlangen Cotton Spinning and Weaving Company	9 ,,
The Uhlarnhausen Cotton Spinning Co.	8 ,,
The Kolbermoor (Germany) Cotton Spg. Co.	8 ,,
The Uhs (Germany) Cotton, Spinning and Weaving Co.	9 per cent. Ordinary 10 Prefce. (8pnrs.
The Pfersee Spinning, and Weaving and Co., of Augsburg	7 per cent.
The Haunstett Weaving Co. of Augsburg	8½ ,,
The Heoverian Cotton Spinning Co	3 ,,
The Leipsic Worsted Yarn, Spinning Co.	14 ,,
The Kempten (Bavaria), Cotton, Spinning Co.	11 1-9 ,,
The Oberursel Spinning and Weaving Co.	10 ,,

The American receipts to date give the following comparisons:—

	1885	1884	1883
Tuesday's Receipts	4,000	6,000	16,000
Four-days' do.	11,000	17,000	37,000
Total since 1st Sept.	4,334,000	4,488,000	5,357,000

The tone of the market here to-day has been very decidedly firmer. Ready Broach has been asked for by European shippers at Rs. 230, perhaps Rs. 231, but in other things native dealers as buyers on speculation have quite taken the lead, and for Bhownuggurs Rs. 2 per candy advance has been established, Rs. 202 being now the quoted price for Good, April delivery, and Rs. 199 to Rs. 200 for May.

WHEAT is dull and easier. There is no pressure of supplies on the market yet, but for No. 1 White Pessy the quotation has receded to Rs. 3-7 per cwt. sellers.

SEEDS are also quiet and tending downwards. For Linseed we quote Rs. 5-10 to Rs. 5-11. Guzerat Rapeseed is offering for new delivery at Rs. 6-2 per cwt.

FREIGHTS keep about the same level and dull at that. Now that March shipments are over, shippers seem shy about making engagements unless at easier rates. We quote:—

	Ready.	Forwards.
Liverpool	25s.	25s. 3d.
Open Charter	27s. 6d.	26s. 3d.
Havre	26s. 3d.	26s. 3d.
Antwerp	26s. 3d.	26s. 3d.
Marseilles	32s. 6d.	32s. 6d.
Trieste-Venice	32s. 6d.	32s. 6d. to 37s.

EXCHANGE.—For no very apparent reason, unless that the previous rise was without good foundation, sterling has been much weaker to-day, with a decline of 1-32d. all round. Closing rates are:—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7d. per Rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 6 25-32d. ,,
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 7 1-32d. ,,
Credits ,, ,,	1s. 7 3-16d. ,,
France ,, ,,	20f. ,,

GOVERNMENT PAPER has naturally been stronger on the home advices, and Fours have advanced to Rs. 95⅞, with very few sellers. For Fours-and-a-half we cannot give a reliable quotation, probably Rs. 98½ would be about the figure.

SHARES are firm except for spinning and weaving concerns, which have to withstand at the moment the adverse influences of dearer cotton and the more discouraging character of the Franco-Chinese question. More discouraging that is to say for the moment, but we are inclined to think all the more likely to lead to an earlier eventual settlement. Prices, as a rule, are rather easier for Mills. Presses are firm. Bombay-Burmah Trading Company's shares are Rs. 100 better.

CENTRAL ASIAN CRISIS.

THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF DEBATEABLE TERRITORY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

LONDON, APRIL 1.

The Standard to-day makes an announcement that the officers of the Russian Army in Central Asia have been warned by the Czar to avoid any step that would be likely to embroil the country in a war with England, including the construction of the railway to Merv.

"There is a strong impression here that the conciliatory attitude of Russia is simply a diplomatic move with the object of gaining time, owing to her unpreparedness for a great war in Europe and Asia.

The Marquis of Hartington in the House of Commons last night made a statement with regard to the crisis.

He said that the Russian occupation of positions in the debateable territory was purely provisional, and could not in any way at present be regarded as a permanent arrangement.

He added that Russia was seeking a preliminary understanding on several points of importance, prior to the Boundary Commission getting to work.

[REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.]

LONDON, APRIL 1.

The Marquis of Hartington, in the House of Commons last evening, said it was inexpedient to make a statement with reference to the progress of the negotiations between England and Russia before the Easter recess, and his lordship deprecated any discussion on the subject at present in view of the sensitive feeling existing in England, Russia, and India. His lordship said that our military preparations were intended as a menace to Russia in order to influence the negotiations between the two countries.

Instructions had been sent, he said, to the Viceroy sufficient to guide him in his negotiations with the Ameer.

Under these circumstances, his lordship said he could only repeat the assurance given by Russia that her troops will not further advance, and, on the other hand, the British officers of the Boundary Commission had advised the Ameer's officers also to advance, but had advised the Ameer not to withdraw his troops from their present positions. His lordship informed the House that the Russian Ambassador had given assurances that the reply of the Government to Earl Granville's despatch was of a conciliatory character.

THE RUSSIAN REPLY.

LONDON, APRIL 1, 6 p.m.

Pall Mall Gazette publishes a paragraph evening's issue stating that the Russian reply to Earl Granville's despatch of the 16th inst. is very satisfactory. The Russian Government fully accepts Earl Granville's proposed zone in debateable land, and accepts in principle that Zulfikar shall not be drawn further south than Pul-i-Khisti and Chamen-i-Beid or north than Khushk-i-Rubat and Sariyazee. The despatch only suggests a slight extension of the Zone in view of topographical and ethnographical conditions.

THE VISIT OF THE AMEER.

ENTRY INTO RAWAL PINDI.

POSTPONEMENT OF THE DURBAR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

RAWAL PINDI, MARCH 31.

Persistent rainfall during the night and a perfect downpour early this morning entirely overthrew the elaborate ceremonial with which the Ameer of Cabul was to enter Rawal Pindi camp to-day. Residents in the vast canvas city spent a restless night by reason of the storm, and they awoke to find the highways and byeways almost impassable.

The camp was early astir, responding to the pleasant bugle-calls which summoned the troops to parade. The majority turned out in their greatcoats, and about seven thousand were called upon to line the roads, standing ankle-deep in mud and slush. The rain was still drizzling, but not until the last moment was it anticipated that the programme would be abandoned. Forty splendid elephants, which had been selected for their superior size and appearance from the numbers available, paraded outside the station according to the orders. The huge animals with their magnificent trappings and gorgeous howdahs were only just visible beneath the canvas coverings. Silver ladders hung by their sides. The mahouts were clad in rich scarlet and gold liveries.

The executive officers of the Punjab Government who were to ride in the procession were grouped beneath the station buildings. Near them were two more durbaries dressed in costly robes. The rear approaches to the station were lined with troops, arranged with the view to the elephants passing between. Suddenly the mahouts were ordered to put back the line of elephants. No sooner was the order obeyed than it transpired that the special train was not delayed, as was at first supposed, but that the procession was altogether suspended.

The station was somewhat scantily decorated, and those deputed to receive the Ameer kept under shelter until the train came in sight. This was a few minutes after eight. The train appeared to be crowded, and strange and savage faces peered from the windows. The only indication of the Ameer's presence was afforded by the presence of one or two recently attired attendants on the platform. The Ameer was really accompanied by only sixty persons. The remainder of the space was filled with baggage. His Highness travelled in the train of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab. The saloon carriages left Peshawar at one o'clock, and the speed was gradually increased to about thirteen miles an hour on a very slow start. The Afghan party were, however, shown the capabilities of the engine before leaving the train, being brought along for the last half-hour at the rate of forty miles an hour. By this time the sense of novelty had disappeared, and they suppressed all feelings of astonishment.

Colonel Waterfield, Commissioner of Peshawar, first alighted and escorted to the Ameer's carriage the party in waiting to receive him. The Ameer shortly descended from the carriage and shook hands in a stately fashion with Sir Charles Aitchison, Lieutenant-General Biddulph, and the Commissioner of Rawal Pindi, who were successively presented.

Abdul Rahman was attired in military uniform resembling that of a Turkish officer, of cloth, decorated only by a pair of orders on the breast and a black leather belt studded with jewels. His head was covered with a light sheepskin hat resembling that worn by the Gilzai tribe slightly modified according to the Cossack fashion. His Highness is a stoutly built man, with a massive head, broad shoulders and body, and is inclined to corpulence. His appearance was in striking contrast with that of his rough followers, and his reception by the Government representatives was thoroughly dignified.

Some few moments were occupied by a series of introductions. The Ameer was then escorted from the platform to where the group of Government functionaries were waiting by Sir Charles Aitchison and Colonel Henderson, representing the Foreign Office, also General Mir Mahommed Khan, the Ameer's Calcutta representative, and Haji Asadullah, his Agent in Bombay, who had already been, and closely followed by Golam Hyder, the Commander-in-Chief, Mahomed Khan, chess-player to the Ameer, Mir Mahomed Hussein, ex-mustafi, and a crowd of the Ameer's court attendants. They were dressed in a variety of costumes of various styles. They presented a remarkable figure as they pushed and elbowed their way at the Ameer's heels, a score of widely differing tribes being represented amongst them. Some with costly hookahs for the Ameer's use, others with bundles and pots and pans for his followers, roughly equipped soldiers, and councillors all together into the station courtyard. The Ameer has brought his deaf and dumb painter, his personal cook, whose duty is to first taste all the Ameer's meals before they are served, a doctor, a chamberlain, and a host of hookah and pan-carrying boys.

The most conspicuous persons in the throng were the sabeg orderlies, whose savage countenances were set off by gigantic hats of black beaskin. They were armed to the teeth, carrying rifle in hand, and a knife and a sword at their side. Each was encircled by a cartridge-belt filled with ball cartridges of every description. They strike terror into all beholders. This received a ludicrous illustration on the spot. The two Usbegs roughly dispossessed two Bengali servants of their places behind the Government carriages, and rode off, disregarding the protests of the terrified footmen. The Ameer's followers literally bristled with weapons of the most formidable character, and their looks did not belie their reputation for ferocity.

A salute of twenty-one guns was fired by a battery of Field Artillery at the station, and was repeated from the Lieutenant-Governor's house as His High ness reached his residence. Guards of honour awaited the Ameer at both places. Abdul Rahman was shown the elements of the elephant procession as he entered his carriage. His own elephants were covered with heavy bullion embroidery on a brilliant scarlet cloth, hanging to within a few feet of the ground and had a silver howdah with panels in high relief and cushions of crimson velvet.

The Lieutenant-Governor's howdah bore the royal arms in burnished metal, and the whole train of elephants was gorgeously decorated.

A wing of the King's Dragoon Guards and a battery of Royal Horse Artillery served as an escort, and the Staff officers of the Rawal Pindi force and a squadron and a half of the 15th Bengal Cavalry followed in a newly arranged procession. Although saturated by rain, nothing could be finer than the appearance of the regiments through which the Ameer drove to his residence, and the military display impressed him greatly.

The same cannot be said of the appearance of the troops brought by the Ameer. Five hundred men have arrived at Rawal Pindi—infantry and cavalry—nearly one thousand being left at Peshawar. Neither in dress equipment nor in race is any uniformity to be discovered among them. They have nothing worthy of the name of uniform. All are presumably picked troops, but their nondescript character and oddly assorted arms provoked outbursts of laughter as they passed to their camp in the Ameer's compound. They are strong and wiry men with embrowned and weather-beaten faces, and their beards and hair untrimmed. No two are dressed alike, save for a cape of rough sacking, which serves also as a hood. But all are strongly shod, many in high cavalry boots. The general impression among Europeans is that such desperadoes were never before seen off a theatrical stage. Their guns are of various sizes, and all carefully cased in canvas covers. The cavalry also are armed with lances. They have sheep-skin caps, with or without peaks, and worn according to each man's taste. The officers are undistinguishable from their men, whose faces bear traces of severe marches and very rough weather, and they seem as if personal cleanliness were a virtue unknown to them. Their muddy and tattered garments give them the look of having just passed through a long winter campaign, or as if they had just issued from the casual ward of an English workhouse.

Four trains conveyed the Afghan troops here, arriving during the night.

A deputation from the Governor-General, consisting of Mr. Durand, the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Mackenzie Wallace, the Private Secretary, and Lord William Beresford, Military Secretary, attended at the Ameer's house, and made the usual ceremonial inquiries after His Highness' health, on behalf of the Viceroy. The Afghan visitors speedily made themselves comfortable. Large quantities of fruit are being despatched daily from Bombay for their consumption.

The abandonment of the elephant procession was only the result of rainfall. The large durbar tent in the Viceroy's camp has been rendered utterly unfit for use. The water was still running through in streams this morning from the flat roof of the shamiana. The carpets and furniture had to be removed, and scores of pans ranged on the floor to collect the water and prevent the ground from becoming a swamp. After consultation with the Viceroy the durbar was accordingly postponed sine die, and official notices issued to this effect.

I am afraid that the tents of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught have not altogether escaped. They were occupied by their Highnesses on their arrival late last night. The entrance to the pavilion was saturated this morning, and rain has continued all day.

To-morrow the whole troops are to parade on Dhanna plain and to pass in review before the Viceroy and the Ameer. But the parade is almost impossible from the state of the ground. The metalled roads are in a fearful state from the heavy traffic. The land where the civil camp is pitched causes the gharries to stick fast, and the cavalry camp is situated so badly on the ploughed land that allowances of grass and straw are being distributed from the Commissariat.

At noon to-day the cannon which form part of the present of the Government to the Ameer were drawn up in front of the Viceroy's tents. There are twelve eighteen-pounders and six eight-inch howitzers. The guns will be drawn to Kabul, with a complete equipment, by over two hundred bullocks, specially selected by Government in northern India, as a part of the handsome gift.

Cattle disease, which has been very bad in the district, has at last died out, having apparently run its course.

MAJOR NICHOLSON, R. E., secretary to the Defence Committee, has not yet started for Herat. He has been summoned to Pindi from Simla, and it is an open secret that he will probably receive instructions to proceed forthwith to Herat, accompanied by three other engineer officers, among whom is Lieutenant Day. It was Major Nicholson who drew up a plan for the fortification of Herat so early as last summer. He is well fitted, moreover, to carry out the work designed by himself. It is not yet known by which route the engineers will proceed, but probably viâ the Persian Gulf.

A RUMOUR has reached Lahore that a disturbance took place on the Tonk border on the 24th ultimo. The Mahsud Waziris attacked the small garrison at the Kotirghi outpost, who sent off at once to the post at Gurri for assistance. The fort at Gurri is at present garrisoned by some of the 1st Punjab Infantry, who at once proceeded to Kotirghi, attacked the Waziris, and drove them back into their own hills, after killing five of them. Instructions have been given to make preparations to guard against further attacks should the Waziris meditate any reprisals.

THREE emigrant ship, the Ganges, the Nagpore, and the Ellora, lately arrived in Calcutta from British Guiana, bringing with them 1,293 return emigrants, of whom 886 were men and 406 were women, besides a large number of children. The remittances to the Emigration Office on their account were no less than Rs. 3,22,294, in addition to which they brought with them specie and jewels valued at Rs. 69,220, or, altogether, their savings amounted to nearly four lakhs of rupees. The money is said to have been pretty nearly equally distributed amongst the whole of the emigrants, though one Madrassi possessed Rs. 3,334.

Two Gardner guns—one 5-barrel and one 10-barrel—have been despatched by steamer from Bombay to Quetta. The 2,000 saddle trees which were being turned out at the Madras Gun Carriage Factory were completed last Saturday evening, and were at once despatched to the Arsenal to be forwarded on to Egypt. Dr. Roberts inspected the men of the Madras Gun Carriage corps on Monday morning, and passed about fifty of them, who have been directed to hold themselves in readiness to proceed at the shortest notice to Quetta. They consist of fitters, fitters, armourers, and turners.

IT is announced that the Madras Government will shortly form a Committee consisting of Colone Ross-Church and Messrs. Garstin, Thomas, and Crombie to discuss the best means of carrying out the suggestions for the formation of a Volunteer Reserve Corps in Madras. Could not similar measures be adopted in Bombay?

THE report on Public Instruction in Bengal, for the year 1883-84, has only just been published, nearly a year after the expiration of the period therein treated. The total annual increase of about 10,000 fresh schools with 200,000 new scholars, which have been of late years regularly added to swell the Government institutions in Bengal, have at length almost ceased: only about 1,400 new schools with 80,000 pupils having been added to the list in the year under review. The explanation of this is, that the elementary indigenous schools, which have been of late years so carefully searched for, have been now nearly all added to the Government institutions, the number of pupils, all told, reading in 70,000 institutions of all classes in Bengal, reached the vast aggregate of nearly 1½ millions.

THE system of paying money-orders by postmen at the houses of the payees has been extended to all post offices in this circle, and to certain villages in British territory served by village postmen. It will no longer be necessary for the recipients of a money-order payable at such places to go or send to the post office for payment, except in the case of money-orders for large amounts payable in villages at a distance from the post office. The postman will ordinarily take the money, as well as the money-order, to the payee's house, and on the latter signing the money-order in the manner prescribed, he will receive its value from the postman.

THERE are just now an unusual number of Royal authors in the world. Among reigning Sovereigns and their consorts may be counted Queen Victoria; King Oscar II., of Sweden; Dom Luis, of Portugal; the Shah Nasirud-Deen, of Persia; Queen Elizabeth, of Roumania; Prince Nicolas, of Montenegro; Don Pedro II., of Brazil; and, so it is said, King Louis II., of Bavaria; and among other literary Royalties are the Imperial Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria; the Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Albert Victor and Prince George of Wales, the Princess Christian, the Imperial Crown Princess of Germany, Prince Lucien Bonaparte, and several others. There are also many royal artists, musicians, and priests. There is probably, however, but one Royal doctor. Duke Charles Theodore, of Bavaria, is in practice at Munich, and is a surgeon-oculist of high reputation in his own country. It must be a strange experience, after consulting this princely Æsculapius, to press a 20-mark note into his hand; but in these days there are some Princes who would not be above receiving an even smaller sum.

THE star system of the monthly magazines is all very well, Truth remarks, when it simply means that literary stars or specialists hold forth on their own topics, but it becomes downright snobbery when it takes the form it does in this month's Nineteenth Century, in which the possession of a title seems to be the title to a hearing. Of thirteen contributors only two are simple commoners, and they are, indeed, hors distinguis by contrast with the Prince (he is only a Russian Prince, as is true), the Marquis, the Marchese, the Earl, the Viscount, the noble Lords, the Right Honourable, the K.C.B., the Knight, and the Pasha who are set to discourse de omni re scibili, and especially about that of which they know, if anything, nothing more than any other (and common) fellow. As a rule, "Royal and noble authors" are about the dullest company one can pick up in a library. It, therefore, they are to swamp the magazines, the magazines will have to return to anonymous articles.

ROBERTS surpassed even himself, not to mention all other billiard players, in his recent match with Taylor. Fancy a man in receipt of 3,000 points in 10,000, although in such form as to make two breaks of over 600, and once, being beaten at the end by nearly 2,000 points! It is marvellous (Truth remarks), and a development of billiards never dreamed of.

MR. LABOUCHERE is informed on excellent authority that Sir Frederick Stephenson is unfavourable to an advance on Khartoum, either now or hereafter. He believes that our true policy in the Soudan is to withdraw to certain strategical points, occupy these strongly, and leave the Mahdi alone. By adopting this plan, the prophet's cause will lose its power. His followers, for want of a foreign enemy, will waste their strength in internecine quarrels. In due course, the ammunition which has fallen into their hands will be expended; and, as long as we hold the Red Sea littoral, and establish a strict blockade, time cannot fail to tell in our favour.

THE peculations of the tithe-collectors in Cyprus have, it would appear, been serious enough, but nothing like what they have been represented to be. Instead of amounting to £50,000, they will not, perhaps, when the accounts are completed, reach a tenth of that sum. But even that is a considerable slice out of a slender revenue like that of Cyprus. A searching investigation all over the island has resulted in the committal for trial at the next assizes of eight officials, including one assistant inspector of revenue; another is under remand, and three have absconded. Similar frauds have long been familiar to the dufterdars of every Turkish province, where they have come, unfortunately, to be regarded almost as a matter of course, and they form but one item in the general tale of corruption.

SIR HERBERT MAXWELL, M. P., proposes to add whipping to the severe punishment imposed by the Explosives Act of 1883 on those who are connected with explosions, or who without good reason make or keep explosives, &c. The Bill that he has introduced on the subject permits three whippings to be ordered in addition to the other punishment awarded. They are, however, to be inflicted on male convicts only. And in the case of an offender under 16, the number of strokes at each whipping is not to exceed 25, and the instrument must be a birch rod. For those over this age the number of strokes allowed at each whipping is 50; and the Court is directed to specify the instrument to be used. It is also provided that a whipping is not to be inflicted more than six months after the passing of the sentence, nor after a man has been removed to a convict prison with a view to his undergoing penal servitude.

BISHOP WORDSWORTH has not only refused his retiring pension of £1,800 a year, but he has behaved with princely liberality towards the See of Southwell. There is a deficiency of £10,000 in the Endowment Fund, for which the Bishop and certain guarantors are liable. Dr. Wordsworth had originally contributed £3,000 to this fund, and since his resignation of the See of Lincoln he has placed a sufficient sum in the hands of two trustees (Canon Wordsworth and the Warden of Keble) to provide for the whole deficiency; but, of course, a vigorous effort will be made to obtain the required amount from the public, as it is out of the question that the Bishop and his family should be taxed for so large a sum. £4,500 has already been promised, and the Bishop of Southwell has just subscribed £3,000 (to be paid in four years), so that £7,500 is still wanted. In such wealthy counties as Derby and Notts there ought to be no difficulty in obtaining the amount, especially as some of the most influential resident noblemen have not hitherto supported the fund in the way which might reasonably have been expected.

SOME figures are published by the Paris Soir which may be of interest to the British dramatist, and also to those who make a point of attending the first night of new plays. It states that in an average first-night audience, amounting in all to 1,000 people, there will be—Personal enemies of the author, 50; persons who, without knowing him, hope for a failure, 103; those who have paid an extravagant price for their seats, and are therefore ill-disposed towards the piece, 123; cross, owing to a bad dinner, 14; generally bad-tempered people, 21; women deserted by the author at some period of his life, 9; fellow-authors, 28; men to whom the author has refused to lend money, 42; enemies of the manager, 60; indifferent, 450; friends, 0; floating population, 100. If the night should happen to be wet, 200 of the "indifferent" become "enemies."

A RATHER good story is told at the expense of a gallant General commanding one of the English out-districts. At the time when the Suakim Expedition was being got ready he was summoned by telegram to London. No appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Suakim forces had as yet been made, and he went to the War Office full of high hopes. These hopes were still further raised by the first words the Duke said to him. "I have sent for you, General ——, to ask you if you are prepared to accept the command of ——." The General's face beamed in anticipation of the high honour about to be conferred upon him. "The command," went on the Duke quietly, "of the Volunteers at the Brighton Review." I believe the now disappointed General declined the honour. What made the disappointment the more bitter was that this gallant officer had, as a matter of fact, been talked of for the Suakim command, and he knew it; but the selection was not approved in certain high quarters.

NEWS FROM GOA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

PANGIM, MARCH 30.

The heat is frightful, and all the big folk have moved to Caranzalem, a lovely place facing the sea and close to Cabo, the present residence of the Governor-General.

It is rumoured here that the Chief Secretary to Government, Senhor Guimaraes, will act for the Governor-General during his short absence on leave, and not the Archbishop of Goa, who is to finish his pastoral visits in Bombay before the end of May.

A telegram has just been received here, announcing that the Pope has been pleased to extend to the 31st May next only the delegation to the Archbishop of Goa to govern the Portuguese churches in British India, after which date his jurisdiction will be limited to Portuguese India; that over British India and the French possessions in the East being handed over to Monsignor Agliardi, the Papal Delegate. This news has created considerable excitement here, as the same is bound to come the Jesuit Fathers are certain to receive a large share of abuse from the Portuguese press, as it is supposed that owing to their machinations, the Pope has resolved to put an end to the double jurisdiction of Goa over British India. It now remains to be seen whether there will be a rupture between the Courts of Rome and Lisbon in consequence of the above decision of His Holiness.

He was picked up unconscious, bleeding from the nose and mouth, and died immediately. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

AN OLD THIEF.—Rama Vittoo, well known to the police, was placed before Mr. Cooper yesterday on three charges of theft. The accused, it appeared, robbed his acquaintances right and left, and there were no less than fourteen persons who complained of his light fingers. He had been arrested on suspicion on a charge of theft, and while investigating that case the police discovered in his house various boxes and pans, clothes, and other articles which he admitted stealing. He was sentenced to eighteen months' hard labour.

A DRUNKEN VICTORIA-WALLA.—At the Fort Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Ryan, Narayen Nankoo, a victoria-driver, was charged by a sepoy with driving his victoria while drunk. The accused pleaded guilty, but said he could not help it. He had a fare of two Europeans, who had made him drink their healths, though he strenuously refused the liquor. While driving about, the liquor commenced to take effect, and being frightened to go on with his head muddled, he requested his fare to get out. But just then a sepoy came up and took him into custody. The magistrate fined him Rs. 5.

A DISHONEST RAILWAY SERVANT.—Nowrojee Manockjee, a carriage examiner in the employ of the G. I. P. Railway Company, and stationed at Carriage-boarder, was yesterday convicted by Mr. Dossabhoy Framjee of stealing a quantity of castor-oil, a railway lamp, a hammer, six blank books, and a quantity of stationery, of the value of Rs. 20, the property of the G. I. P. Railway Company. The prisoner was employed by the railway company about the middle of January last, and stationed at Warree-bunder. Since he was employed, Mr. Elliot, the head foreman of the goods yard, had at different times missed several articles from the station. On Tuesday night Mr. Elliot received certain information, in consequence of which he made inquiries, and on examining the accused's tiffin-box, a tin of castor-oil belonging to the railway company was found concealed in it, and on the railway police searching his house the rest of the articles stolen were found. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge, and also admitted two previous convictions of theft. He was thereupon sentenced to twelve months' rigorous imprisonment.

INSOLVENT DEBTORS' COURT.—APRIL 1.

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice BAYLEY.)

THE following among other matters were heard before his lordship:—

RE AGA MAHOMED JAFFER SHIRAZEE.

The Hon'ble Mr. Budrooddin applied for an extension of the interim order granted to the insolvent. Mr. Lang, on behalf of a creditor, Khatimbai, wife of Goolam Hoosein, objected to the application, for the reason that the insolvent had done absolutely nothing since the order was granted him. The petition was filed on the 17th April, 1884, and six days later an interim order was granted. Since then insolvent had simply obtained extensions of the order, and now when the petition came on for hearing to-day he applied for a further extension.

The Commissioner remarked that the insolvent's liabilities amounted to Rs. 1,01,336, while the assets were nil.

Mr. Lang said it was a most fraudulent insolvency, and that the insolvent had been guilty of gross criminal breach of trust.

The judge said, after the reading of an affidavit by the opposing creditor, that the insolvent had abused the process of the court, and that he should have no further protection.

Leave was given to amend the schedule, and the hearing of the case was fixed a fortnight hence.

RE PURSHOTUM DHUNJEE.

Mr. Mankar moved for a rule nisi to withdraw the petition, on the ground that insolvent had settled with his creditors. The application was granted.

RE PANDURANG SUCCARAM.

Mr. Mankar moved absolute a rule some time ago granted the insolvent for the withdrawal of his petition. The application was granted.

RE DAJEE BALAJEE SOORWAY.

Mr. Manker applied for an extension of the interim order. An extension for two months was granted.

RE TAPEDAS CANDAS.

Mr. Manker, on behalf of the insolvent, applied for leave to amend the schedule and to serve notices. The application was granted.

RE JAMSETJEE SORABJEE MADON.

On the insolvent appearing in person to get his discharge, the Commissioner remarked he had already been twice through the court; that in his first insolvency the liabilities were Rs. 5,500, and in the second insolvency, Rs. 2,600. In his first schedule he described himself as a Europe shopkeeper; and his lordship inquired what was the cause of his coming to grief on that occasion.

The insolvent said he incurred debt in connection with the Parsee Priest Defamation case, in which he was the defendant. The prosecutor was Nowrojee Byramjee Sunjana. Insolvent was tried at a Criminal Session presided over by Sir Michael Westropp, late Chief Justice, and was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 2,000. He said he was once in prosperous circumstances; but those days had now gone by.

The insolvent was warned against future extravagance, and was granted a discharge.

PETITIONS DISMISSED.

The petitions of the undermentioned insolvents were dismissed, in consequence of non-prosecution:—Lawrence Alexo Athaide, Kullianjee Pairaz, and Ruttonjee Byramjee Savae.

DISCHARGES.

In the course of the day the undermentioned insolvents were granted discharges:—Emimbhoy Chundabhoy Tade, liabilities Rs. 12,432. Tookaram Ruckmajee Nowl, Rs. 424. Dyashunker Prannunker and another, Rs. 10,200. Bhowsing Soosiasing and others, Rs. 1,438. Wullee Joosuf Memon, Rs. 1,608. Narayen Bhawoo Gujur and others, Rs. 4,051. Pallonjee Ruttonjee Kapadia, Rs. 4,235. Joseph Alexander Rosario, Rs. 4,951. Dewker Mohunjee Thucker, Rs. 9,505.

Wilkinson's Essence or Fluid Extract of
RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

Is the ONLY PREPARATION RECOGNISED by the FACULTY as a WONDERFUL PURIFIER of the HUMAN BLOOD.

It is asserted by those who take a little DAILY the system becomes less liable to attacks of illness.

"We recommend your Red Jamaica Sarsaparilla."—Medical Review.
"Theonly preparation for removing what may be called the Sequelæ of a mercurial course."—Sir R. Martin.

DISEASES OF THE CHEST.
GRIMAULT AND CO.'s SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITE OF LIME.

Persons suffering from CATARRH, CONSUMPTION, COLD or OBSTINATE COUGHS, and generally those afflicted with diseases of the chest, bronchiæ, or throat, should use GRIMAULT & CO.'S SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITE OF LIME, which, prescribed for years past by the medical authorities of all countries, has invariably effected wonderful cures.
By the use of this Syrup the Cough is calmed, nocturnal sweats disappear, and the appetite rapidly improves—a fact soon demonstrated by an increase of weight and improved appearance.
GRIMAULT'S SYRUP is of a rose colour, and contained in flat oval bottles.

GRIMAULT AND CO.'S ATICO CAPSULES AND INJECTION.

Renowned Physicians prescribe GRIMAULT'S ATICO at the most active and at the same time the most inoffensive remedy in the treatment of ACUTE and CHRONIC DISEASES. These CAPSULES have not, like COPAIBA, the inconvenience of giving NAUSEAS. The Injection is used in recent and the Capsules in the more chronic cases.

DUSART'S SYRUP OF LACTOPHOSPHATE OF LIME
This preparation enriches the blood, strengthens the bones, and improves all the vital energies.
Phosphate of Lime is the substance most necessary to life; indispensable for the formation and nutriment of the bony system, as for the transformation of food into muscular fibre. Without it the body wastes away, and it is to supply the lack of Phosphate of Lime that Dusart Syrup is so useful. It is of inestimable benefit for CONVALESCENTS, WEAK and OLD PEOPLE, and SICKLY CHILDREN, who find in it the CALCAREOUS ELEMENTS entering into the CONSTITUTION OF THE BONES. Well adapted to LADIES in the FAMILY-WAY, WET NURSES (whose milk it enriches) and to stop CHILDREN'S DIARRHŒA.

ASTHMA! ASTHMA
GRIMAULT & Co.'S INDIAN CIGARETTES.

Asthma, Nervous Coughs, Chronic Laryngitis, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Facial Neuralgia, and Insomnia, are rapidly relieved by using these Cigarettes.

SICK HEADACHE! NEURALGIA
GRIMAULT & CO.'S GUARANA.

This Medicine owes its curative virtues to the great quantity of Caffein which it contains. Dr. Wilkes, of Guy's Hospital, declares in the British Medical Journal that Grimault's Guarana acts "like a charm."
"Grimault's Guarana Powders are a certain remedy for Sick Headache."—The Lancet, Aug. 31, 1872.
It is the most valuable remedy against Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and all disorders proceeding from derangements of the Stomach or Bowels.

"THE PIANOS FOR INDIA."
The experience of nearly thirty years proves that
S. ROSE AND CO.'S
SYMPATHETIC GRAND SQUARE PIANO
is, par excellence, the best suited for the climate of India.
WE GUARANTEE EACH PIANO. { "This piano was awarded a first-class certificate and medal of the Calcutta Exhibition." } WE GUARANTEE EACH PIANO.

S. ROSE & Co., have supplied many hundreds of their noted Sympathetic Grand Square Pianofortes to residents in all parts of India. No one instance has occurred of a "Sympathetic" having given way; of course the action and mechanism will wear; but S. ROSE & Co., have seen "Sympathetics" which, after twenty years' use, have, after the entire action has been renewed, been as rich and beautiful in tone as when quite new.
All parts of the instrument have been studiously cared for in the manufacture; the external case being of solid mahogany, with ornamental fret work at the openings. In regard to tone and touch it is a first-rate instrument.
The term "Sympathetic" was first used to designate the character of tone. The term has been made use of by others without scruple, and many purchasers have paid for "Sympathetics" of a most doubtful quality, and which are not entitled to the name; but are merely inferior imitations.

Cash price, in solid Mahogany Case	Rs 850
" " in solid Ebonized "	" 900

S. ROSE & Co., have adopted the "One-Year Purchase-System" for the sale of their Sympathetic' Grand Square Pianofortes;—full particulars on application.

THE SCOURGE OF THE UNIVERSE!!
CHOLERA
SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY THE USE OF COTTER'S CHOLERA PILLS.

Now that the frightful ravages of cholera is the subject of controversy among our eminent Medical and Sanitary authorities, it behoves us to look to ourselves, and to seek the knowledge of a faithful reliable medicine, which, while being thoroughly efficacious, will also come within the reach of the means of everyone.

COTTER'S CHOLERA PILLS!!!

Have obtained a reputation which, if it was more generally known, would prove an enormous blessing to thousands of sufferers. The present holder has obtained the sole proprietary right from Mr. Cotter, and the cause of humanity demands, undeniably, that the public should be made fully cognizant of a remedy so easy of access.

COTTER'S CHOLERA PILLS

Surpass any other medicine in the world for efficacy of properties, and several have derived great material benefit from a medicine which has only to be tried to recommend itself, even to sceptics in matters medicinal. In every fact, Cotter's Pills are miraculous in their effects, and will eventually prove their many advantages in theface of any other choleraic preventive.
